Rec'd. May 12.

EDINBURGH
AP 29
65

Samuel May Junr.

221 Washington Street

Boston

Massachusetts

U. S. America

Anti Slavery

MS.B.1.6 v.10. P.25

3 Gray St. Edinr. 29.4.65

My dear Friend,

I have to thank thee for a brief acknowledgement of our little remittance & for thy kindness in distributing it according to our wishes - we shall be glad to have thy promised long letter soon - but do! how changed is the aspect of all things by the terrible events of the last weeks, more & more do we learn

Was a foul deed & like like a thunderbolt went Airway Horror & indignation was visited & cruel and Cowardly was the deed. fit & characteristic of the slaveholder's course but surely now the South will repudiate the infamous deed!

President Lincoln was a noble man a man of progress with no

mc. B.L. & vi/D. p. 25

introduction of the Foreign community has had known in the preliminary negociations for peace led us to trust mercy and Freedom would soon blend with peace & restore prosperity & your nation - but the Lord God Omnipotent reigneth! & in Him must be our trust - with humble & deep sympathy we think any action & stretch the whole British nation unites - I remain

Thine very sincerely
E. Wigham

With them kindly sort or advice the ardour. —

MS.B.1.6 v.10, p.25